The amendment received 5/3/04 has been entered and claims 1, 3-8 are currently pending in this application. The amended title is unacceptable because it is not directed to the claimed invention.

In view of the amendments to the claims and arguments presented, all rejections of record are hereby withdrawn. However, note the new rejection following, hence this Office Action is made non-final.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1, 3-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Each of the following applies in every occurrence.

Independent claims begin with an indefinite article, dependent claims begin with a definite article. In claim 1 line 1 "the determination" lacks antecedent basis. Claim 1 is not understood. In claim 1(b) "the spermatozoa" lacks antecedent basis. In step (b) latent PHGPx is reactivated but in step (c) "reactivating thiols" lack antecedent basis. Further, chaotropic agents and thiols are removed from the sample but are never added to the sample. In step (d) "the content" lacks antecedent basis and is not understood in context, and "the solubilized latent PHGPx" lacks antecedent basis. Claim 1 is directed towards "the determination" but lacks a correlating step to make such a determination. Further, what is determined is not stated. All method steps are properly stated as gerunds. In claim 3 "removal" lacks definite antecedent basis. In claim 4 "the content" is not understood in context and PHGPx is not solubilized so the claim is not understood. In claim 4 "conventional" is queried. In claim 4 what enzyme is determined is not set forth. In claim 8 it is not seen how a specific method predicts in general of all samples. Further, "sperm samples" lacks definite antecedent basis.
